Almost a shrub, this low-growing plant grows in compact rounded clumps a few feet across. Leaves are a silver-green and are slightly fuzzy along with the stems. Flowers appear in small clusters and are a nondescript green in color. Berries are produces that are equally green. This species native habitat includes sandy dunes along beaches. Provides year round interest.

- Perennial
- Grows 1 foot
- Found on sand dunes, coasts

Flowering Time

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Jan</th>
<th>Feb</th>
<th>Mar</th>
<th>Apr</th>
<th>May</th>
<th>June</th>
<th>July</th>
<th>Aug</th>
<th>Sept</th>
<th>Oct</th>
<th>Nov</th>
<th>Dec</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>