

Sea Oats

Uniola paniculata

This plant is excellent for stabilization, forming deep roots on the surface and below. Sand collects at the bases of plants, forming dunes. Plants are highly tolerant towards salt spray. Flowers appear on a long stem which facilitates wind pollination. Birds feed on the seeds.

- Perennial
- Grows 6 feet
- Found along beach dunes

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time